Citizen Movement for Change

Effective Date: June 4th , 2025

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device (computer, tablet, or mobile) when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work or function more efficiently and to provide information to website owners.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

We use the following types of cookies:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies
These cookies are essential for the operation of our website. They enable basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas. Our website cannot function properly without these cookies.
- Performance Cookies
These cookies collect information about how visitors use our website, such as which pages are visited most often. This data is used to improve the website's performance.
- Functionality Cookies
These cookies allow our website to remember your choices (such as your language or region) and provide enhanced, more personalized features.
- Analytics and Third-Party Cookies
We may use third-party tools like Google Analytics to understand visitor behavior and traffic sources. These cookies may track your browsing across different websites.

3. How We Use Cookies

Cookies help us to:

- Ensure the website functions properly
- Enhance user experience
- Analyze traffic and usage patterns
- Improve our digital communication and outreach

4. Managing Cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser settings to decline cookies.'

However, disabling some cookies may affect the functionality of our website. You can manage your preferences via your browser or cookie pop-up tools on our website.

5. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. When we do, we will revise the "Effective Date" at the top of this page.
